

SPECIFICS OF THE "FINANCE" EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

The university higher vocational education in "Finance" has a two-staged structure: Bachelor's and Master.

Training of bachelors is carried out in two directions of the educational program of specialty 5B050900 – "Finance": "Banking", "Taxes and taxation".

In a magistracy preparation in the specialty 6M050900 – Finance is carried out in two directions: to the profile; scientific and pedagogical. Undergraduates are trained at the expense of the state educational grants and on of paying basis.

Specifics of this EP is in its orientation to training of highly skilled heads and experts in the sphere of banking, taxes, financial management, the analysis and control of activity financially - the credit institutes, managing subjects, formation of a reserve of the leading personnel of tax authorities and scientific and pedagogical shots in the field of finance and the banking, capable to analyze tendencies of development of a financial system, its role in regulation of reproduction processes in the country, to prove the directions of a monetary policy, improvement of the financial legislation for activity stimulation on formation of economy of innovative type.

It allows carrying out to graduates of this EP registration and analytical, organizational and administrative, design, research, consulting activity in the financial and credit organizations, financial and economic and administrative services of the companies of various branches and forms of ownership.

Graduates of the specialty "Finance" are demanded on a labor market, have a lot of opportunities of employment and can carry out professional work as economists, financial analysts, investment consultants, heads of financial managements, finance directors, and also at other positions demanding knowledge of tools and methods of financial management, bases of the organization of monetary and credit regulation, a monetary and credit turn.

Specialists of the chair developed and introduced in educational process actual educational techniques, technologies, innovative educational resources.

Modern mechanisms of the organization of educational process allow using e-learning technologies in the course of training of the bachelor in the field of finance and credit.

Important condition of high-quality profile and educational training of bachelors, masters is the high skill level of the faculty, the corresponding material base, library information support and service of students, intensive development of the relations with domestic and foreign higher education institutions.