

In the S.Seifullin Kazakh AgroTechnical University for fruitful international cooperation between universities and borrowing experience from foreign specialists at the department of technical faculty "Standardization, metrology and certification" as part of a strategic partnership in external academic mobility master of science (technology) "industrial engineering and management" of Lahtiv University of Applied Sciences (Finland) - Tula Loytti was invited.

Since 22 October till 1 November 2018, scholar lectured, conducted practical training on the topic: "Methodology of "six sigma" in quality management", also master classes for bachelor, master degrees, PhD and faculty members.

Students got an opportunity to replenish their knowledge.

In general all participants noted Tulla Loyti's high professionalism, found knowledge of exchange experience useful for research and teaching work.

